

A person wearing a light-colored suit jacket and a blue button-down shirt is shown from the chest down, holding an open book. The scene is set outdoors in a warm, golden light, possibly during sunrise or sunset. The background is a soft, out-of-focus landscape. The text "TITUS" is prominently displayed in a large, white, serif font, with the subtitle "Healthy Church, Home, and Life" below it in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. Two thin white vertical lines are positioned on either side of the text, extending from the top and bottom of the frame.
